Review: Pierre Bourdieu's 'On Television' - Owlcation ...
Bourdieu's essay helps answer such a question in terms of self-censorship, market economics and the desire to be "on television". Bourdieu doesn't actually mention the cult of celebrity but in its coruscation of those for whom "to be is to be perceived" (p.14) the acceptance of and compliance in censorship is a necessary condition for television's creation of a "public-that-won't-understand ...
