Moses, Elijah, and Jesus: Why are they all together at the ...
Moses' presence signified that in Jesus the shadows of the law were all fulfilled and now withdrawn. In Jerusalem men were still fighting, not merely for the law of Moses, but for the traditions of the elders, and priests and leaders were still arguing about the tith of mint and cumin. Here upon the mount was the great law-giver himself, by his presence acknowledging that this glorified One, Who should presently be crucified in the name of the law, did in Himself gather up all that was ...

Why Did Moses and Elijah Appear on the Mountain ...
Since the death of Jesus was the fulfillment of the Law and the Prophets, that is one reason why Moses and Elijah happened to be there. The second reason why these two men were there was that Moses had died but Elijah had not. Moses was there to represent the saints that will be resurrected.

Why did Jesus bring Moses and Elijah to the transfiguration?
Jesus had said to the unbelieving Jews that He would not accuse them before the Father because it was Moses who was their accuser (John 5:45). He meant that they would be guilty in the eyes of the Father due to their failure to believe what Moses had written about the coming Prophet, Jesus.

Why did Jesus say that Moses is our accuser?
Anger is one of the reasons why Moses struck the rock twice. Psalm 37:8 says "Refrain from anger and turn from wrath; do not fret—it leads only to evil." #2 Complaints. This is exactly one reason why Moses gets angry all the time. Not only did the people of Israel like to complain but they also disobey God and have a rebellious heart.

Why Moses Struck the Rock and Why God Punished Him ...
Answer: Throughout the wilderness wanderings of the Israelites, God was constantly teaching them things about Himself and about their own sinfulness. He brought them into the wilderness, to the same mountain where He revealed Himself to Moses, so that He could instruct them in what He required of them.

Why is a bronze serpent used to save the Israelites in ...
Moses and Jesus were alike in that they both led God's people out of captivity. With great power, Moses led the Israelites out of physical bondage and slavery in Egypt, and Jesus, with even greater power, led God's elect out of spiritual bondage and slavery to sin. Moses stood before Pharaoh and said, "Let my people go" (Exodus 5:1).
